

Education Community Resource List

College of Western Idaho - Adult education and GED Prep. Classes are FREE to adults 16 and older, not currently enrolled in public school. Choose to take classes in Boise, Nampa, and other community locations. <https://cwi.edu/adult-education-ged-prep>

Abundant Living Classes (Love Inc.) – The Abundant Living Program is founded on Biblical principles from a holistic perspective. Participants learn not only money management skills but skills that affect every aspect of their lives. <https://www.boiseloveinc.org/abundant-living-classes>

Reentry Pathways to Success - Education and Training – There are many options for continued education and training that can set you up for a new job or career path. Whether it's getting your GED, starting an apprenticeship or technical education program, or getting into college, there are resources to help you explore and prepare. <https://reentry.idaho.gov/education-training/>

Idaho Veteran Educational Services – Division of Veterans services education options. <https://veterans.idaho.gov/education/>

Idaho Division of Vocational Rehabilitation - List of various workforce programs that offer education and training. <https://vr.idaho.gov/workforce-programs-2/>

Idaho Department of Labor - On the Job training - On-the-job training and apprenticeships are a great way to get paid while working toward a career that interests you. <https://www.labor.idaho.gov/job-seekers/on-the-job-training/>